RECITALS

WHEREAS, Sec. 8-10.30, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990, as amended ("ROH") provides that an owner of certain commercial property that has been placed on either the National or the Hawaii Register of Historic Places after January 1, 1977, may dedicate such property for historic preservation by petitioning the City's Director of Budget and Fiscal Services Department to obtain an exemption from real property taxation and agreeing to maintain such historic property in accordance with a maintenance agreement, which provides for the maintenance and preservation of such historic property, so as to retain its characteristics as a property of historical significance;

WHEREAS, the Owner possesses fee title in and to that certain real property, together with associated structures and improvements thereon, that have been placed on either the National or the Hawaii Register of Historic Places after January 1, 1977, either as an individual structure or as a structure that contributes to the integrity of a historic district, commonly known as _____, Hawai'i and more particularly described in Exhibit "A" (the "Historic Property"); and

WHEREAS, the City and the Owner, for their mutual benefit, now desire to enter into this Agreement both to protect and preserve the historically significant characteristics of the Historic Property and to qualify the Historic Property for an exemption from real property taxation pursuant to ROH Sec. 8-10.30.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, the City and the Owner, in consideration of the mutual covenants and conditions set forth herein, do hereby agree as follows:

1. Recitals. The Recitals set forth above are incorporated into this Agreement and any extensions of this Agreement for an additional 10-year period (the "Agreement").

2. Effective Date and Term of Agreement. This Agreement shall be effective as of July 1 200__ (the "Effective Date"), and shall remain in effect for a term of ten (10) years thereafter. This Agreement shall automatically renew for an additional ten (10) years, unless either party provides the other party, no less than three (3) months prior to the expiration of this Agreement, with written notice of its intent to not renew. There shall be no limit on the number of additional ten-year automatic renewal periods. Each additional Agreement shall be effective as of July 1, immediately following the end of the previous Agreement.

3. Standards for Historic Property. During the term of this Agreement, the Historic Property shall be subject to the following conditions, requirements and restrictions:

a. The Owner shall preserve and maintain the historically significant characteristics of the Historic Property, as specifically described in Exhibit "B" (the Maintenance Plan), in accordance with the United States Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation and Guidelines for Rehabilitating Historic Buildings;

b. The Owner shall allow reasonable periodic examinations during regular business hours of the Owner, by prior appointment given at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance, of the interior and exterior of the Historic Property by representatives of the City's Real Property Assessment Division, or the State Historic Preservation Division, or their assigns and designees, as may be necessary to determine the Owner's compliance with the terms of this Agreement.

c. The Owner shall use the Historic Property as a commercial property. "Commercial property" means a property classified for real property tax purposes as commercial and excludes properties classified for real property tax purposes as hotel and resort or industrial. A "commercial property" may have other allowable uses under the land use ordinance.

d. The Owner shall provide the public with reasonable visual access to the Historic Property in accordance with the requirements of the National or the Hawaii Register of Historic Places, as applicable, and ROH Sec. 8-10.30.

4. Real Property Tax Exemption. Fifty percent (50%) of the value of the Historic Property, or qualifying portion thereof, shall be exempt from real property taxes assessed by the City.

5. Provision of Information of Compliance. The Owner hereby agrees to furnish the City with information necessary to determine compliance with the terms of this Agreement. All proprietary information provided by the Owner to the City shall be stamped and kept confidential.

6. Termination. The City may terminate this Agreement if it determines that the Owner has breached any of the material conditions of this Agreement, including the provisions in Paragraph 3.a. above, and has failed to cure said breach after notice, as set forth in Paragraph 7 below. In the event of termination, the City shall terminate the real property tax exemption provided to the Owner retroactive to the Effective Date of this Agreement or the effective date of any 10-year automatic renewal period and the Owner shall be subject to payment of all differences in the amount of taxes that were paid and those that would have been due but for the exemption allowed by this Agreement, together with interest at twelve percent (12%) per annum from the respective dates that these payments would have been due.

In the event that the Historical Property shall be taken or condemned by any duly constituted authority exercising the right of eminent domain, or is destroyed other than by Owner's actions or omissions and the Historical Property is unable to be reasonably reconstructed or restored, then this Agreement shall terminate and the Owner shall not be subject to the recapture provisions described in the paragraph above.

Upon the termination of this Agreement as described in this Paragraph 6, the Owner shall record a document, signed by the City, releasing the Owner from all covenants, reservations, and restrictions set forth in this Agreement, and shall provide a copy of said recorded release to the City.

7. Enforcement of Agreement. In lieu of or in addition to any provisions to terminate this Agreement as referenced herein, the City may specifically enforce or enjoin the breach of the material terms of this Agreement. In the event of a material breach by the Owner under the provisions of this Agreement, the City shall give written notice to the Owner by registered or certified mail to the address stated in this Agreement or otherwise provided by the Owner, which notice shall specifically identify the alleged material breach and the proposed action which the City recommends to the Owner to cure said alleged material breach. The Owner shall thereafter have sixty (60) days within which to initiate cure of such material breach, and fully remedy said alleged breach within one-hundred and eighty (180) days to the reasonable satisfaction of the City, subject to any acts of God or force majeure events; provided, however, in the case of any such breach whose cure cannot be initiated or fully remedied within such period described above, if the Owner shall commence promptly to cure the same and thereafter prosecute the curing with diligence, the time within which such breach may be cured shall be extended for such period as necessary to complete the curing thereof with diligence. Upon completion by the Owner of the cure of the material breach, the City shall withdraw its notice of breach.

Should Owner not cure such breach within the time period specified above, subject to any acts of God or force majeure events then the City may, without further notice, declare a default under the terms of this Agreement and may bring any action necessary to specifically enforce the obligations of the Owner arising out of the terms of this Agreement, apply to any court, state or federal, for injunctive relief against any violation by the Owner or apply for such other relief as may be appropriate.

The City does not waive any claim of default by the Owner if the City does not enforce or terminate this Agreement. All other remedies at law or in equity which are not otherwise provided for in this Agreement or in the City's regulations governing historic properties are available to the City to pursue in the event that there is a breach of this Agreement. No waiver by the City of any breach or default under this Agreement shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other subsequent breach thereof or default hereunder.

8. Binding Effect of Agreement. The Owner hereby subjects the Historic Property to the covenants, reservations and restrictions as set forth in this Agreement. A short form of this agreement shall be recorded. The City and the Owner hereby declare their specific intent that the covenants, reservations and restrictions as set forth herein shall be deemed covenants running with the land and shall pass to and be binding upon the Owner's successors and assigns in title or interest to the Historic Property. Each and every contract, deed or other instrument hereinafter executed covering or conveying the Historic Property, or any portion thereof, shall conclusively be held to have been executed, delivered and accepted subject to the covenants, reservations and restrictions expressed in this Agreement regardless of whether such covenants, reservations and restrictions are set forth in such contract, deed or other instrument. In the event of termination of this agreement, the covenant shall be removed from the title.
